B: Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following text carefully then answer the questions below:

Water activities enrich our lives. People enjoy activities such as swimming, surfing, scuba diving and boating. They should follow simple rules to make water activities safer and to help keep everyone excited.

At the beach, swimmers should follow the lifeguard's instructions to be safe. Surfboard riders must stay away from people's swimming areas. When the sea is too rough or the waves are too high, they shouldn't swim. Scuba divers must make sure their equipment is working properly and in good condition to have a safe trip before going on each dive. They must also learn hand signals, so they can communicate with other divers under water. No one is allowed to dive alone.

There are special rules for people who like boating. First, they should make sure the boat is working well. Then, they can plan their trips. Checking the weather forecast is useful too. Moreover, they should wear life jackets, use sun cream and shade to protect their skin from sunburn. It is a must to carry a first aid kit, a flashlight and a rope. Taking a radio will also help them talk to someone on shore. Finally, people who like boating must watch out swimmers and people who are snorkeling around.
