B) Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

16

China is a wonderful country. Its population is about 1.4 billion people. It has many festivals. One of these festivals is the New Year Festival. It lasts for eight days. Chinese people start preparing for it a week before. They clean their houses and decorate them with red lights and colourful papers. They go shopping to buy new red clothes and costumes to wear.

Relatives come from far away to join their families. They all sit around the table for the tasty special dinner meal. Lots of special food is prepared but the most important kind is usually fish. Dinner is usually eaten at home, after dinner, children are given red envelopes with some money inside. At midnight they enjoy many activities like fireworks, lions and dragon dancing parties, so streets are always crowded and noisy.

The next morning, on the first day of the new year, they wear their new clothes and visit their friends and neighbours. Traditionally, young people visit the older ones to say Happy New Year. In the afternoon, there are parades or marching where people dress up in colourful clothes. Some people wear huge lion costumes, too. Festivals and celebrations are fun.
