Turtles are one of the oldest animals in the world. They can live for about 150 years. You can find them living almost anywhere. There are two main types of turtles, sea turtles and land turtles. The largest turtle in the world is the leatherback sea turtle, which can weigh over 900kg.

Turtles are special animals! They can live in land and in the sea. The temperature of their body changes based on how hot or cold it is outside.

Turtles have a hard shell covering their bodies. They are able to hide their heads inside their shells if they feel anxious. This will keep them safe from other dangerous animals. The hard shell may makes them move slowly. They will not need to run fast from other animals if they can hide inside the shell.

You may wonder what do turtles eat? There are several types of turtles which can eat different types of food. Land turtles eat only plants such as grass and fruits. However, sea turtles eat sea animals like jellyfish and squid. Some turtles eat both meat and plants.

B-Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

Read the following passage , then answer the questions that follow :

Can animals be trained to work for us? Some scientists think that one day, animals may be trained to do some simple jobs that are now done by people. They point out that at the circus for example; we may see elephants, lions, tigers, monkeys and other animals doing skillful things. Perhaps you have seen them on television or in a film. You may notice that the trainer gives the animals a cube of sugar as a reward when they do something well. People use horses, elephants, and oxen to pull cars and move heavy things. Policemen use dogs to find wanted persons, others use dogs to search for missing or lost people

Scientists say that many different animals may be trained to do several simple jobs if they know they will get a reward for that. Of course, as we know, dogs can be used to guard houses. In Russia, for example, pigeons, which are birds with good eyesight, are being used for watching out. At the same time, a few seeds are given to the pigeon as a reward. Monkeys are trained in America to help drivers and scientists. Perhaps in the future, these monkeys may help farmers to collect fruit and vegetables.
