B- Reading (16 Marks)
Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions below:

I used to work as a teacher in the north of England. It was not a bad job and I really liked my students, but I began to feel tired, so I decided I needed a break.

I had always loved travelling, so one weekend I typed 'international volunteering' into an internet search engine. At the top of the results page was the possibility to go and stay on an island in the Indian Ocean and help to protect the beaches and the sea animals. I began joking to friends about sending in an application. I had some diving experience, and the more I talked about it, the more I wanted to do it, so I contacted the organisers. One week later, they offered to send me to the island, and I accepted.

The volunteer job was only for two months during the summer holiday. I thought after I had finished, I would come home. As soon as I got to the island, I was sure I had done the right thing. My first dive was incredible. I felt so lucky to be able to experience that every day. In fact, I loved it so much that I never came home! I have now been on the island for ten years and I have a permanent job. I'm working as a marine educator, teaching volunteers about the sea life and taking them snorkelling and diving.

Of course, not everything about my new life is perfect. I work far harder than I used to. However, I cannot imagine going back to my old life.
