- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

What a busy day, and it was only 9 a.m.! Li Ming woke up early and went to the market with her mother, aunt, and sister. Then, she helped clean the house and prepare the beds.

Today was the Mid-Autumn Festival. It was a time to celebrate and to be together with family. Her aunt, uncle, and older cousin lived in the village. Today, they were coming to town to stay with them. There was still so much to do!

The holiday was also known as the Chinese Moon Festival because it was held on the night of a full moon. The ancient festival has been celebrated for more than 3,000 years! People ate special food called mooncakes. And this year Li Ming was old enough to help her grandmother make them.

Grandmother and Li Ming took turns mixing the dough. Next, they filled balls of dough with sweet lotus paste. Finally, it was time for the fun part. They put each ball of dough in a mould to make a pattern.

Some mooncakes didn't look right, and Li Ming was sad. "Mooncakes are about family and unity," grandmother said. "It's not important that they are the perfect shape. It is important that we make them together."

A. From a, b, c and d, choose the most suitable answer: (6X2=12 Marks)

09. What is the best title for this text?
