- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

An ant was working hard in the fields. It was summer, and it was very hot. Suddenly, a grasshopper appeared singing happily. "What are you doing in the sun, sweating like that?" grasshopper asked. "Stop working. We can play!" he suggested. "Thank you," ant replied, "but I have to keep working." "But you can do that later," grasshopper said again. "No, I can't. I need to finish my work before winter comes," ant explained.

A few weeks later, the grasshopper came back. This time, the ant was moving grain in a basket. "Hey, ant! You're still working! Aren't you tired?" he asked. The ant didn't answer. The grasshopper went away.

Winter started and it was very cold. Snow covered everything. Ant stayed at home, warm and happy. She had a lot of food to eat. One day, grasshopper appeared at ant's home. He was tired and weak. "Please, ant, I have nothing to eat," he cried. "Can you give me some food?" ant gave grasshopper some of her grain. Grasshopper ate the food hungrily, chewing it quickly. He thanked the ant for her kindness.
