B) READING COMPREHENSION (16 Marks)Read the following text carefully, then answer the questions below:-

Sheikh Nasser Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Sabah was not just a leader, he was a man with a big heart and even bigger dreams. Born in 1948, he was the oldest son of the late Amir of Kuwait, Sheikh Sabah Al-Ahmad Al-Jaber Al-Sabah. From a young age, Sheikh Nasser loved learning, reading about history, and thinking about how to make Kuwait a better place.

Sheikh Nasser believed that Kuwait could grow into something amazing, not only a country known for oil, but one full of smart ideas, strong people, and great opportunities. That is why he took part in creating (Kuwait Vision 2035), a brave and powerful plan to build a better future for everyone. He wanted better schools, more jobs, new industries, and a place where young Kuwaitis could follow their dreams.

One of his most exciting plans was Silk City, a modern, beautiful area filled with parks, homes, towers, and businesses. He dreamed of Kuwait becoming a place the world would respect and visit. But Sheikh Nasser also respected the past. He supported museums and history projects because he believed that knowing where we come from helps us choose where we are going.

In 2020, when Sheikh Nasser passed away, the country felt a deep sadness. But his dream did not end with him. His ideas still live on, guiding the way for new generations. Sheikh Nasser proved that one person, one dream, can change everything. His story reminds us that believing in your country and your people can build a better tomorrow.
