- Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Cats are small animals that many people keep as pets. They have soft fur, sharp claws, and long whiskers. Most cats have tails and love to climb, jump, and play. Cats can be of many colours, like black, white, orange, and gray. Some of them have spots or stripes.

Cats are known for being clean. They lick their fur to keep it tidy. They also like to sleep a lot—sometimes up to 16 hours a day! When they are awake, they may chase toys, explore the house, or sit in a sunny spot.

Cats often purr when they are happy. Purring is a soft sound they make, usually when someone pets them. Some cats meow to talk to people. Each cat has its own personality. Some are playful and active, while others are quiet and like to relax.

Taking care of a cat means to feed it, to give it water, and to keep it safe. Cats can be great friends. They make many people happy with their cute faces and fun ways. Really, they are amazing creatures.
